Lesson on the Road

Thomas believes because he sees Jesus. Many of us can relate to Thomas' response to the news that the disciples had seen Jesus. We want to see for ourselves too, but we grow in faith, trusting the experience and knowledge of others.

I love this story when Jesus meets those two disciples on their walk to Emmaus. He doesn't meet them in any special place like a temple, but right where their at on the road. He listened and walked with them every step of the way.

I wonder how often, Jesus is walking beside us, and we don't recognize or understand that He's there. While He was walking along, He gave the impression that He was going to continue on. While he was really waiting for their invitation. The same is true for us today. Jesus is never going to force Himself on us. He wants an invitation into our homes and into our hearts and when that happens, He opens our eyes to everything possible through Him, just as He did that day with the disciples along the road. Jesus will meet you right where you are, wherever you are. He waits for your invitation, because He loves you.

"A bend in the road, is not the end of the road unless you fail to make the turn."

-Helen Keller
