Rule #1, never make God #2

It's Pierogi Time !

Once again we will be making our famous Pierogi on the weekend of September 11th and 12th. In the event we have extremely hot weather we will post-pone pierogi making until September 19th and 20th.The sign-up poster is in the church vestibule. The pierogi are being made to sell at the Fall Craft and Vendor Show on Saturday, September 26th.

Be a Part of the 'Platinum Crusade'

We are beginning a Platinum Leaf Campaign to offset the HVAC costs for our church and social hall auditorium, by asking parishioners and friends to donate $500.00 to the All Saints Building Fund. You can make an individual donation or join with a group of family members and make a joint donation. Up to four separate names can be placed on each leaf. The platinum leaves will be silver in color and will be added to the bronze leaves already on the Tree of Life plaque in the church vestibule.

Work will be starting soon, on these two very important project to improve and update the HVAC systems in our parish Church and Hall.

Be Aware of Frauds & Scams

Consumers lose millions of dollars to scams each year. If you are withdrawing funds for the following reasons you've fallen victim to a fraudster and are being scammed.

1. You've been told the bank or a certain employee is being investigated and you need to withdraw or move your money to keep it safe.
2. You've been told that you've won a lottery or a contest and need to send money for taxes or fees then the prizes will be released to you.
